Faculty Handbook For Student Internships
INTERNSHIP GUIDELINES

DEFINITION:
An internship is a supervised work experience, related to a student's major or area of career interest, with intentional learning goals. It is monitored by a faculty member and an internship site supervisor and offers course credit. Internships are often unpaid, but may receive paid compensation.

CREDIT:
Internship credit is awarded for the planned learning that occurs during the internship, not for the intern's performance at the internship site. Cottey awards 1-2 credits in the fall/spring semesters and 1-3 credits in the summer. No more than 4 credits for Associate candidates and 12 credits for Bachelor candidates will count towards graduation. Credit hours enrolled will be based on hours worked.

• 1 credit hour = a minimum of 45 hours per semester
• 2 credit hours = a minimum of 90 hours per semester
• 3 credit hours (summer only) = a minimum of 135 hours per semester
  *Summer internships incur tuition costs per credit hour

ELIGIBILITY:
Students eligible to participate in an internship must have first-year, second-semester or second-year standing by the beginning of the internship AND have a 2.0 cumulative GPA or higher.

ENROLLMENT:
Developing an internship is similar to a job search. The student will initiate contact with potential internship sites, submit resumes and applications, interview, and finally secure an internship. The experiential learning coordinator can assist with ideas for internship sites. To enroll in an internship at Cottey College, the student needs to complete the following prior to beginning an internship experience.

• Investigate possible internship sites.
• Select a faculty member who wishes to supervise the internship experience.
• Work with faculty sponsor and internship site supervisor to complete the Internship Learning Contract and Responsibilities Agreement.
• Obtain an Add Form from Academic Records.
• Submit completed Internship Learning Contract, Responsibilities Agreement and Add Form to the experiential learning coordinator in the Academic Assistance Center.
• Students are not officially registered for an internship until ALL forms with signatures are submitted and the internship has been approved.
• Students must attend an internship orientation with the experiential learning coordinator prior to the first day of the internship.

GRADING:
The internship experience will be graded as pass/fail. The faculty sponsor will award academic credit once the internship and method of evaluation have been completed as outlined in the Internship Learning Contract. Students will submit an Internship Activity Log as documentation of activities. At the end of the internship, both the employer and faculty sponsor will submit an evaluation of the student intern and the student will submit an evaluation of their internship experience.
FACULTY SPONSOR RESPONSIBILITIES FOR STUDENT INTERNSHIPS

- Encourage students to participate in internships.
  Internships enhance learning by allowing students to integrate theory into practice. Students completing internships often develop clearer academic and career goals.

- After a student has located a potential internship site, she may ask you to be the faculty sponsor.
  If you agree to be the sponsor, assist the student in establishing learning objectives. All Cottey College students, prior to entering into an internship agreement, must complete a Learning Contract with internship specific learning outcomes. It is expected that the Internship Site Supervisor and a Faculty Sponsor, determined by the student, will have significant input into the expectations and requirements needed to achieve the learning outcomes set forth in the Learning Contract.

- Develop learning objectives and intern duties on the learning contract.
  Will the duties allow the intern to achieve her objectives? Does mastery of the learning objectives warrant the awarding of the credit hours? Does the site provide an environment conducive to learning?

- Determine the modes of evaluation you will require in addition to the evaluations.
  Be specific. Active reflection of the work experience is an essential part of an effective internship. Evaluating student performance may involve on-site visits, student interviews, site supervisor interviews, conference calls, and additional internship assignments. Additional assignments may include supplemental readings, notebook/portfolio, journals, research paper, reflection paper, or final project/product.

- Review and sign the student's Internship Learning Contract and Responsibilities Agreement.
  The student will submit their Learning Contract to the experiential learning coordinator for approval. The faculty sponsor, site supervisor, registrar, and student will receive copies.

- Establish regular meeting times with the student.
  The Faculty Sponsor should meet with the student a minimum of three times during the internship either in person or by phone. Advocate for the student if problems arise. Ask questions to ensure the learning objectives are being met. Students will submit Internship Activity Logs, signed by their Site Supervisor, midway through and at the end of the internship as documentation of tasks performed.

- Evaluate the learning that has occurred during the internship.
  Discuss all evaluations with the intern, giving her a chance to offer feedback. Relate experiences in the internship to theories studied in the classroom. Suggest strategies for future improvement.

- Assign a grade.
  After receiving all of the evaluations, activity logs and required assignments from the intern, issue a grade of pass/fail, with pass defined as a C or better.

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING COORDINATOR DUTIES

- Acts as an informational and educational resource for all parties involved in the internship.
- Maintains a listing of internships for students and faculty.
- Coordinates administrative paperwork and provides student orientation to the internship experience.
- Assesses program and develops better means of administration based on comments from students, faculty and site supervisors.
Tips for Students Drafting
An Internship Learning Contract

The Internship Learning Contract is a mutual agreement among the student, the internship site, and the faculty sponsor, indicating what the student hopes/wants to learn, how she will learn it and what she has learned. In other words, the Learning Contract includes learning goals or "objectives," strategies for accomplishing the goals, and evaluation methods.

The student is responsible for developing her Internship Learning Contract. However, she will need the input of the internship site supervisor and the faculty sponsor to complete it. She may want to write a first draft of the contract and then share it with her site supervisor and faculty sponsor for suggestions and approval before producing the final version.

1. Complete the general information of the learning contract.

2. Under Statement of Ability, describe the current skills, knowledge and work experience required for this internship. Attach a resume and include coursework taken related to the internship.

3. Develop 3-4 Learning Objectives. Be as specific as possible. Learning objectives are important and generally fall into four categories:

   - Skill Development: learning and improving specific skills (writing, research, communication, computer, etc.)
   - Broader Knowledge: understanding the workplace, operational procedures, and organizational structure, socioeconomic factors, etc.
   - Career Awareness: investigating specific careers and occupations and the qualities and/or training required.
   - Personal Development: confidence, assertiveness, decision-making, values

4. Indicate the Tasks and Strategies that will be performed in order to achieve the learning objectives. Include the internship title and specific duties and responsibilities. Refer to the internship job description.

5. The Faculty Evaluation section is to be completed by the student and the faculty sponsor. The evaluation methods should be specific and include a reflective component. Typical assignments include a journal, portfolio, presentations or papers.

6. Return the completed Internship Learning Contract and Responsibilities Agreement to the Experiential Learning Coordinator, in the Academic Assistance Center, RBAC 164.

An Internship is NOT –

"Time Out": Although an internship is usually pursued outside of the college setting it should not be viewed as "time-out" from college to go to work. An internship is a learning experience. Some people learn more effectively through experience, and internships provide that opportunity. Remember, a grade or credit for an internship is based on what you can show or demonstrate you learned during the internship, not solely on the evaluation of your performance.

An Easy Grade: Most students report working just as hard if not harder on their internships as they do for classes on campus. Pursuing an off-campus internship along with several other classes creates a demanding schedule and requires a lot of time and energy. Be careful not to plan an internship during an otherwise "heavy" schedule.

Volunteer Experience: Regardless of the financial arrangements, an intern is not the same as a volunteer. An intern earns credit or a grade based on what is learned from the internship experience. A volunteer may perform the same tasks equally well but may or may not be self-conscious about the learning derived. As an intern, you must be self-conscious of what you are learning and strive to meet identified learning goals in order to successfully earn credit or a grade.

Resident Expert: Student interns bring special skills, knowledge, and fresh ideas to an organization. It is not appropriate, however, for an organization to expect an intern to be the "resident expert" or to fill a gap in an area in which the staff lacks basic skills of knowledge. A professional staff person should supervise you with expertise in the area in which you are working.

Go-Fer: An intern is not supposed to perform all the routine or uninteresting work within an organization. An internship should be a meaningful learning experience. Most positions and projects involve some routine work; however, it is recommended that it be limited to twenty percent of your time as an intern.

Guarantee of a Job Offer: There is no guarantee that an internship will get you a job. Many employers value hiring someone who has had internship experience; therefore, when you are competing for a particular position, your internship may prove beneficial. The best way to gain career and job advantages from your internship is to get to know the people you are working with in the organization. Build an information and referral network for yourself.
INTERNSHIP LEARNING CONTRACT

The Internship Learning Contract is a mutual understanding among the student, the Internship Site Supervisor and the College (the Faculty Sponsor). The purpose of this agreement is to allow the student to establish, in conjunction with the supervisor, prior to the start of the Internship, a plan for the duration of the Internship experience.

The goal of an internship is to enhance the learning experience. This document provides a basis for students to discuss with supervisors the opportunities for learning that an organization can provide. The Internship Learning Contract assists the intern in making a meaningful contribution to the organization, as well as setting goals to continue professional growth and development. Cottey College reserves the right to approve or reject internship sites and Internship Learning Contracts.
