

Misrepresentation

Misrepresentation is defined as a false, erroneous, or misleading statement made directly or indirectly to:

- a student, prospective student, or any member of the public, or
- an accrediting agency, a state agency, or the Department.

Cottey employees and its representatives do not purposely give inaccurate information about the college. Factual information is presented to prospective students and families regarding educational programs, financial charges, and the employability of its graduates. Student endorsements or testimonials are given voluntarily and under no duress.
