

Aimee Starlin Meyer '02
Secretary

A native of Vernon County, Aimee (Starlin) Meyer graduated, Cum Laude, from Cottey College in 2002 with her Associate's Degree in Science. She then migrated north to Kansas City to complete her education at Park University. In 2004, Aimee graduated with a Bachelor's degree in Public Relations and a Minor in Business Administration and Marketing.

Aimee has worked in Public Relations for over 10 years holding previous positions as a Branch Manager for Bank of America and the Community Relations/Foundation Director for Nevada Regional Medical Center. Now, she and her husband, Jesse, are partners in their family catering company, Count On Us Catering. They also own a vending company, Crosstown Vending. They serve a wide variety of clients in Nevada and the surrounding area, including Cottey College.

Jesse and Aimee enjoy the flexibility that business ownership has offered them to both be successful and to have a family life. Jesse and Aimee have a very spirited 7-year-old son, Sutton and a 4-year-old daughter, Jovy.

Aimee is very involved in her community. In addition to her role as the 2018-19 CCAA President, she serves on the board of the Vernon County Chamber of Commerce. She is also a member of both Cedar and Barton County Chambers of Commerce. Additionally, Aimee serves on the NRMC Foundation board, and is a member of the Nevada Lions Club. In July, 2015, Aimee also joined Chapter DW of the P.E.O. Sisterhood.
