

CALL FOR ARTISTS

New and established visual artists are sought for the Cottey College P.E.O. Foundation Art Gallery in Nevada, Missouri. Several exhibit opportunities are available during the 2020-21 academic year with each exhibition running three to four weeks. The Art Gallery has 125 running feet and 1250 square feet. The College provides insurance on the works and does not charge a commission on sales. A small honorarium is provided.

Individuals or groups of artists may apply.

If interested, please email up to ten images along with a resume or provide a link to your online portfolio by April 20. Describe the concept or theme of the exhibition and indicate whether the images are proposed for the exhibition or are representative images only.

Submissions and questions may be directed to:
