At Cottey, our vision drives our excellence. We are one of the top colleges in the nation because of our educational philosophy.

We have cultivated a diverse, supportive environment so that students can develop their potential free of the social pressure they may feel at another school. We want to educate women to be globally aware, socially responsible leaders through our challenging curriculum and dynamic campus experience.

A positive philosophy, stellar rankings, and great students can only culminate in one result— incredible futures for our graduates! These students show what Cottey women can achieve.

Christi Anne-Beatty (2019, Business - Management) is working toward a J.D. at the University of Cincinnati College of Law while clerking for the real estate law firm Lerner, Sampson, and Rothfuss. Christi's interest in real estate led her to purchase her first income property at the age of 20!

Melanie Dillon (2019, Biology) was hired as a technician for the Avgousti lab at Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center in Seattle, Washington, to study chromatin hijacking by viruses. She is now enrolled at Vanderbilt University's interdisciplinary graduate program pursuing a Ph.D. in molecular biology or biochemistry.
