8 p.m., Raney Dining Room | $7-Adult, $5-Senior/Youth

Nico Carney is a New York-based standup comedian and writer whose material covers his trans and queer experience. He was recently featured in Netflix's "Introducing..." showcase as part of the Netflix is a Joke Festival.

FEBRUARY

Thursday, February 2

Glenn Miller Orchestra in Concert

7:30 p.m., Auditorium | $15-Adult, $10-Senior/Youth

The most popular and sought-after big band in the world today for both concert and swing dance engagements. With its unique jazz sound, the Glenn Miller Orchestra is considered to be one of the greatest bands of all time. The present Glenn Miller Orchestra was formed in 1956 and has been touring worldwide ever since. Public tickets go on sale beginning January 12.

Sunday, February 5

Faculty Recital

3 p.m., Recital Hall

Join us for a performance by the fine arts faculty at Cottey College! Enjoy an afternoon of works from across the ages including classics from composers all over the world.

Wednesday, February 8

Magician Trent James

8 p.m., Raney | $7-Adult, $5-Senior/Youth

Trent James is bringing a fresh feel to the classic magic show. His high-energy performance combines mind-boggling magic with gut-busting humor. Winning more than twenty high honor awards, as well as being the youngest recipient of The Milbourne Christopher Award (past winners include David Copperfield and Penn & Teller), Trent's unique sleight of hand magic has made him a hit on college campuses, luxury cruise ships, and theaters.

Wednesday, February 22

Septura in Concert

7:30 p.m., Recital Hall | $10-Adult, $8-Senior/Youth

Septura brings together London's leading players to redefine brass chamber music through the uniquely expressive sound of the brass septet. Members are the leading players of the new generation of British brass musicians, holding principal positions in the London Symphony, Royal Philharmonic, London Philharmonic, BBC Symphony, among others.

February 23-April 13

Art Gallery

Tuesday, April 4

Sawyer in Concert

8 p.m., Raney Dining Room | $7-Adult, $5-Senior/Youth
Tight harmonies, killer guitar riffs, best friends. Sawyer is a Nashville-based duo comprised of Kel Taylor and Emma Harvey that can be described in no other way than "Indie Sparkle Pop." With over 130 shows under their belt, 2.2 million streams on Spotify, and multiple sold-out shows, they're just at the beginning of their fandom.

Friday-Saturday, April 7-8

The Clearing

7:30 p.m., Recital Hall

The directing class will present The Clearing by Jennifer Reif. It's early summer when teenagers find themselves in a clearing in the woods. Some are searching and some are hiding. A series of ten vignettes: sweet, witty, and poignant. Each scene stands alone but when woven together they make for a magical play.

Friday-Saturday, April 14-15

A Co-Motion Dance Concert

7:30 p.m., Auditorium

A collection of dances presented by the Cottey-in-Motion Dance Company. Faculty and student choreography will be in the program. The Co-Motion Dance Company is directed by Prof. Jo Byrnes.

Cottey Garage Sale

Noon, Gymnasium

This is a wonderful opportunity for students and community members alike – students may sell books, room décor, crafts, clothing, etc. for other students and community members to enjoy. It’s a great way for seniors to lighten their load before heading off on their next adventure and shoppers can find great bargains to start next year on the right foot!

Friday, May 12

Capping

7 p.m., Main Hall Lawn

Capping, one of the longest-running traditions, is when graduates have their mortarboards pinned atop their heads by persons who have significantly impacted their lives.

Saturday, May 13

139th Annual Commencement Ceremony

10 a.m., Auditorium

An honored guest will address the graduating classes of Cottey College. Come and celebrate the newest graduates as they receive their associate and bachelor’s degrees.
