Trisha Stubblefield

Dr. Stubblefield's WGS 360 Ecofeminism: Women, Animals, and Social Justice class traveled to Cleveland, MO, to volunteer at the Kansas City Pig Rescue Network.

While there, we filled pigs' houses with straw, filled water bowls, cleaned up pens, and got to know all the pigs! We also were able to talk with the founder of the rescue and learn all about the lives of farm animals, her experiences in rescuing farm animals, the stories of various pigs, and her strategies for self-care when engaged in such difficult work.

One of the highlights of the trip was smashing pumpkins for the pigs to eat!

Amanda Gilchrist

Amanda Gilchrist attended the 64th annual meeting of the Psychonomic Society in San Francisco, California, from November 16-19th. During her time at the meeting, she learned about current research in working memory, attention, and statistics.

Carmen Bourbon

On November 19, Global Citizens collaborated with the Nevada Animal Shelter and provided care support. As active leaders in community involvement, members signed up for Doggy Day, where one of the members walked Toby to two parks. This helps Toby destress while the shelter finds him a nice family.

Institutional Advancement

While winding down Thanksgiving festivities and planning holiday shopping, Institutional Advancement was eagerly awaiting Giving Tuesday! Giving Tuesday is an internationally recognized day of giving that encourages us all to be a positive change in the world around us.

We are grateful for each and every one of you who made a gift, shared our social media posts, and participated in the spirit of Giving Tuesday! Our donors truly showed up for us this Giving Tuesday, and we couldn't be more thankful!

Consider honoring that special someone with a gift to Cottey College in their name! You can specify an individual to honor on our giving form at www.cottey.edu/give.
