Three students have had work accepted to the Sigma Tau Delta / Sigma Kappa Delta International English Honor Society Convention this year!

Chloe Bollin will present her essay “Sexuality, Patriarchy, and Symbolism in ‘The White Heron.’”

Gideon Hatt will present her essay “Sandra Cisneros’ ‘Down There’ as Menstrual Activism.”

Alexandria Lay will present her essay “The Subversion of Gender in ‘My Antonia.’”

The convention will take place April 3-6 in St. Louis, Missouri.
