Dr. Jon Green

Dr. Jon Green and writing tutor Ava Croan attended the South Central Writing Centers Association 2024 Annual Conference, hosted at the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville, AR, from February 29 to March 1.

They co-presented “What would you say you DO here? Demystifying the Center for Non-Writing Faculty,” and attended multiple sessions about writing center theory and practice. This experience was made possible thanks to the Harmon Chair in English.
