

COTTEY Chronicle

November 8, 2024

Sarah Polo

Students in Dr. Polo's WRI 353 class (Rhetorics of Public Memory) recently took a guided tour with National Park Service staff to learn about interpretation, preservation, and exhibition practices at Fort Scott National Historic Site.

Funding for this experience was generated from the Harmon Endowed Chair in English.

Cottey's Women, Gender, & Sexuality Studies Program is Celebrating Its 20th Anniversary!

T-Shirt Design Contest

Win a $25 Walmart Gift Card!

Limit 2 entries per person.

Contest open to students, alums, staff, & faculty.

Submission Deadline: December 2, 2024

Submit questions & entries to
Dr. Stubblefield, tstubblefield@cottey.edu

Trisha Stubblefield

Help us celebrate 20 years of WGS at Cottey!

Trisha Stubblefield

Biology Capstone presentations will be held on Tuesday, November 19, 2004 at 7:00 pm in RBAC 109. The students presenting are: Lesley Chalmers, Katelyn (Kate) White, Laurencia Botts, and Laura Ethridge. The presentations should last about an hour.

BIOLOGY CAPSTONE
PRESENTATIONS
TUESDAY
11/19/2024
7:00 PM
RBAC 109

Nancy Kohn

On October 24, 2024, the ecology class went to Prairie State Park to learn about prairie plants, land management, fire ecology, and bison from park naturalist Dana Hoisington. The trip included a one hour walk through the tallgrass prairie.

