

COTTEY Chronicle

December 12, 2024

Amanda Gilchrist

I attended the annual meeting of the Psychonomic Society in New York on November 20-24. The Psychonomic Society is an international gathering of cognitive psychologists.

During my time at the meeting, we celebrated the career of Nelson Cowan, my doctoral advisor. He also gave a keynote address on working memory and consciousness the first night of the conference.

